To Whom It May Concern

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

RE: ISIBOR, UWA VINCENT

With utmost regard, I write to attest that Isibor, Uwa Vincent, who has applied to your School for an M.Sc. in Computer Science (Software Engineering), has been known to me for over four (4) years. He was one of the members of the above Catholic Church and a staff of our Communications office. As member of our Parish, Uwa Isibor was entrusted with the responsibility of heading the Media Department of the Church, a task which he carried out with passion, diligence and selflessness.

As one of the staff in our Communications Office, named Catholic Life Media Centre, but formerly known as St. Theresa Printing Press, Archdiocese of Calabar, Isibor is very disciplined and focused in his assigned work. He worked in the said Office as an Information and Communications Technology (ICT) Support Technician, directly under my supervision. He was quite good at installations of software, troubleshooting, research, programming, networking and internet or online activities.

It was observed during the period which he worked with us that he has a team spirit, being able to blend with others around him with kind and warm attitude. It was also observed that beside the ability to work efficiently, he has equally the capacity to go about his job independently and under very stressful conditions.

When I had the privilege of proofreading his academic work, Thesis, in his final year, I found out that Isibor was such a dedicated, hardworking student, who accepted corrections with readiness to effect them after.

I strongly believe he will be found invaluable if admitted for the Graduate Program and hence, with no hesitation, strongly recommend him for admission.

Thank you in anticipation.

Yours sincerely,

Rev. Fr. Christopher Eshiet
